ASSEMBLY MEMBER MARC LEVINE ENDORSES KATE COLIN FOR SAN RAFAEL CITY COUNCIL

San Rafael, CA – Assembly Member Marc Levine announced today that he is endorsing Kate Colin for San Rafael City Council. Colin, who has served on the City Council since January of this year, was unanimously appointed by the City Council to fill the vacancy left by Levine after he won his bid for the State Assembly in the November 2012 election.

Colin, who is seeking to retain her seat by winning a 4-year Council term, was upbeat upon hearing of Levine's endorsement. "I am honored to receive Assembly Member Levine's endorsement," Colin said. "While I have big shoes to fill, I am committed to continuing his good work by serving our community and addressing our most pressing issues," Colin added.

"Council Member Colin has demonstrated her ability to effectively lead San Rafael, and I have no doubt she will continue to work hard to address issues most important to San Rafael residents," Levine said upon announcing his endorsement. "Kate has impressed me and many others in our community about her extensive community involvement, leadership and experience serving our local community," Levine added.

Kate Colin served on the San Rafael Planning Commission for eight years prior to joining the City Council in January 2013. She lives in the Sun Valley neighborhood with her husband and two teenage children.
