CONGRESSMAN JARED HUFFMAN ENDORSES KATE COLIN FOR SAN RAFAEL CITY COUNCIL

San Rafael, CA – Congressman Jared Huffman announced today his endorsement of Kate Colin for San Rafael City Council. Huffman, a San Rafael resident, represents the 2nd Congressional District, which encompasses all of San Rafael and Marin County.

Colin reacted to Huffman’s endorsement with elation this morning. “Congressman Huffman has a phenomenal track record as an Assembly Member and Congressman serving the residents of San Rafael, Marin County and beyond,” Colin said. “I am honored to have earned his endorsement and hope we can collaborate on issues important to San Rafael and see how we can work together to address citizen concerns at a local and national level,” Colin added.

“Council Member Colin has provided effective leadership for the City of San Rafael and I know San Rafael residents trust her judgment and ability to develop sustainable solutions for the future of our City,” Huffman said upon announcing his endorsement decision. “Kate’s work throughout the years as a community volunteer, Planning Commissioner and Council Member have all played an instrumental role in strengthening her understanding of the diverse needs of this great community,” Huffman added.

Council Member Colin was unanimously appointed to the City Council in January 2013 following the departure of Marc Levine, who resigned from the Council to join the State Assembly. She is seeking to retain her seat by winning a 4-year Council term.

Kate Colin served on the San Rafael Planning Commission for eight years prior to joining the City Council. She lives in the Sun Valley neighborhood with her husband and two teenage children.
